

Exercise 1

The Hebrew Alphabet

Write out and pronounce the twenty-three letters of the Hebrew alphabet several times. It is essential to learn how to recognize, write and pronounce each letter.

Handwriting practice lines for the Hebrew letter א (Aleph). Each set of lines includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The letter א is printed at the end of each set of lines for tracing.

ט

י

כך

ל

מם

נון

ס

ע

פך

צץ

Handwriting practice lines for Hebrew letters. Each letter is shown on a set of three lines (top, middle-dashed, bottom) and is positioned at the right end of the lines. The letters are: ק, ר, שׁ, שׂ, ת.

Write out, in order and from right to left, the twenty-three consonants of the Hebrew alphabet. Insert a Daghes Lene into the begadkephat letters.

Give the final form for the following Hebrew consonants.

כ

מ

ו

פ

צ